

Moses: The story

The Israelites were living as _____ in Egypt. When Moses returned to Egypt, they did not _____ that God had spoken to him and was going to _____ His people. Moses had to show them the _____ that God had given him.

Moses and his _____ Aaron went to see the Pharaoh, to tell him to let the Hebrew slaves go. But Pharaoh did not take any notice of Moses, and instead made the slaves' work _____, by telling them that they should now gather their own _____ to make bricks.

Moses was very upset, and decided to go and see Pharaoh again. This time, he used the sign of the stick, which turned into a _____. He also spoke God's words "Let _____ go!"

Still Pharaoh refused, because God made his heart _____. Moses had to show God's power _____ times, and these were called the 10 _____. These included the _____, _____ and the river Nile turning into _____. The tenth plague, also called the death of the _____, was the worst. The Hebrews were protected from the 10th plague, because Moses told them to put _____ on their doorposts. This was the _____.

When Pharaoh's son died, Pharaoh gave in to Moses, and gave him permission to take all the Hebrews out of _____. But he soon changed his mind, and sent out his army to chase after the Hebrews. So God gave Moses the power to _____ the Red Sea and the Hebrews were able to walk across the sea bed. When the Egyptian army tried to follow, Moses allowed the waters to flow back over them, and all the Egyptians were _____.

plagues boils harder drowned Passover ten blood brother lamb's blood stick Egypt my people straw slaves believe snake stubborn firstborn free part locusts signs